

HUM 2100: HIS:The Goods & the Good Life

Explore issues in economic life through texts in theology, philosophy, history, anthropology, literature, and arts. Why do we work, what is the difference between work and toil? What does the production and consumption of things tell about the human person, world, and God?

Credits: 3.0

Program: Humanities