

PHI 2470: Irish Thought and Literature

An examination of main thinkers in the Irish tradition; the relation of reason (science) and religion; the importance of poetry; themes to be explored include (e)migrant thought, exile and home, English as colonizers, language and voice, laughter and comedy.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Philosophy