

ASPD 2200: Applied Professional Devlp

Students will enhance their professional development and career knowledge through this overview of important and relevant topics related to investigating career paths and applying to internships and jobs. The one-credit Independent Study offering is designed to give students greater flexibility in course scheduling. Restricted to CLAS students with permission of Director of Professional Development.

Credits: 1.0

Prerequisites:

ASPD 1000

Program: Arts & Sciences Professional Development