

CHE 3301: ChE Applied Mathematics

Application of differential equations, linear algebra and conservation laws to model complex chemical processes (including non-steady state, and multi-dimensional examples).

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

CHE 3202

CHE 3202

Program: Chemical Engineering