

ENG 4601: Major American Writers II

This course offers a focused examination of a selection of the most influential American writers writing from 1945 to the present. Significant time will be given to each writer, and a range of genres and themes will be considered.

Credits: 3.0

Program: English