

CRM 3350: The Supreme Court

This course examines the factors which influence the decision to charge a person with a crime, public policy considerations relating to restraints on law enforcement and the propriety and wisdom of some established rules of law. Supreme Court decisions affecting the criminal process will be discussed.

Credits: 3

Program: Sociology