ISYT 5000: Information Systems Capstone

Student driven project providing experience on the investigation or implementation of an Information System solution that includes management of a project through the full system lifecycle. A cumulative experience intended to complete a student's portfolio of expertise in Information System.
Credits: 3
Program: Information Systems and Technology