

Visiting Students

Visiting students from other colleges/universities are required to apply to the College of Professional Studies. Academic advisement and the transferability of a Villanova summer course to the visiting student's college/degree program is the responsibility of the student.