

EDU 2201: Social Foundation Educ I

Major movements in the history of education to 1600 with emphasis on their social and philosophical context; historical development of educational aims, curriculum and types of education; religious and political influences on education.

Credits: 3

Program: Education