

LAW 40100: Electronic Commerce

LLM Course For Students in Joint JD/LLM Program This course will focus on emerging legal issues relating to electronic commerce, with emphasis on commercial transactions using web sites. It will discuss web site formation and domain name registration, electronic contracting issues, electronic payment and taxation, advertising, and various implications of engaging in electronic commerce, including privacy and liability issues.

Credits: 2.0