

EMB 1021: Strategic Planning

Managing an organization's long-term success versus focusing on its day-to-day operations. Defining company's mission and grand strategies, and fostering buy-in from all agents in the organization. Building on changing management principles to develop strategic planning principles for the corporate system.

Credits: 6.0