

FRE 3718: Themes in Fre Poetry 1789-pres

An overview of the voices, forms and innovations of the French poetic tradition through the themes of love; subjectivity and objectivity; masculinities and femininities; nature vs. the city; and others, in the works of selected French poets from the nineteenth century to the present.

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

FRE 1132

FRE 1132

Program: Romance Languages and Literatures