

FRE 2145: France & the European Union

Focuses on the history of the construction of the European Union from the post war period to the present. It outlines its various institutions, policies facing the admission of new members and the implementation of its new constitution. Taught in English.

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

FRE 1132

FRE 1132

Program: Romance Languages and Literatures