

LTX 4011: Tax Plan Families Own Op. Bus.

The course is designed as an interactive seminar. The students will work from a factual situation designed around the Smith family and their company, SafetyNet. The hypothetical will serve as the factual background to explore the various tax and non-tax issues that arise in the attempt to grow and nurture a family business and transfer both the active management and the equity to the next generation.

Credits: 2.0

Prerequisites: