

CADC 0049: Working with Managed Care

Working with Managed Care As managed care organizations continue to make inroads into the substance abuse treatment field, it becomes increasingly important for treatment specialists to develop techniques and resources for interacting with payer agencies. Seminar will provide attendees with definitive tools that promote the acquisition of appropriate care for substance abusing clients in an era of managed care.

Credits: 1.0