

CADC 0051: Use of Action Methods w/SA

Use of Action Methods with Substance Abusers This course will provide participants with the skill building in essential action methodology that can be utilized in individual, family, and group treatment settings. A variety of role-playing methods, family sculpturing and empty chair techniques will be demonstrated. Participants will have opportunities to practice newly acquired skills in a safe professionally focused training environment.

Credits: 1.0