

EDU 7259: Juggling People & Expertise

Challenges participants to develop and refine instructional leadership skills, particularly those relating to curriculum and instructional improvement. Skills training includes: leading the curriculum and staff development process; collaborative teacher supervision and evaluation; managing the environment; and communicating within the system hierarchy.

Credits: 1.0