

CADC 0003: Intake/Assessment w/Sub Abuser

Intake/Assessment with Substance Abusers In this class, you will learn the basic skills needed by the professional with front line responsibility for conducting the initial intake interview with the substance abusing client. Essential questions necessary for the achievement of a complete assessment will be covered. Learn how to read the assessment and identify the appropriate resources indicated in the information provided by the client.

Credits: 0.8