

EDU 7260: The Political Principal

Participants will respond to the question: What are the characteristics of a principal who achieves educational excellence through effective political leadership. The seminar will examine three leadership concepts, the "military", the "hub of the wheel", and the "business/ corporate", in order to define the principal; role within a school system.

Credits: 1.0