

EDU 7930: Advanced Placement History

The basic administrative needs as well as topical considerations in American History for an AP history program, emphasizing through simulated lessons the practical requirements of outline development, utilizing the internet for research, test taking strategies, and more.

Credits: 3.0