

LAW 7076: Securities Act of 1934

PREREQUISITE: Business Organizations (7110) The study of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, focusing on the regulation of trading transactions and public companies. Topics studied include securities fraud, insider trading, periodic reporting requirements, takeover regulation, proxy regulation, and broker-dealer regulation. Highly recommended for students interested in practicing corporate or securities law.

Credits: 2.0

Prerequisites:

LAW 7110