

CHE 8556: Proc Control Theory II

Application of linear system theory to the design of process control systems in the time domain. Advanced process control techniques, model based process control, the control of chemical engineering processes.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Chemical Engineering