ME 7200: Applied Optimal Design

Development and use of techniques for improving the performance of mathematically modeled systems. Conjugate gradient and quasi-Newtown methods for unconstrained problems. KKT conditions of optimality, solution of non-linear constrained systems and linear optimization. Computer programming required.

Credits: 3.0
Program: Mechanical Engineering