MBA 8115: Leadership for Tech Mgmt

An introduction to the skills needed for students in the field of technology management to assume leadership positions within their fields. Emphasis is on leadership's responsibility to society; development of oral and written communication skills; and building career networks.

Credits: 1.0