

EDU 7122: Instructional Design

Workshop addresses the latest trends in instructional design, including designed-based research and designed-based teaching. Combining theory & evidence-based best practices, participants learn to develop lessons and learning environments to optimize student engagement, skill development, understanding and retention.

Credits: 1.0