

ENG 4001: Major American Writers I

This course offers a focused examination of a handful of key American writers from early influential voices to major figures publishing to 1945. Significant time will be given to each writer, and a range of genres and themes will be considered.

Credits: 3.0

Program: English