

MBA 8329: Economics of Health Care

The use of economics to analyze the health care market and health policies. Demand for health care, supply of health care including managed care organizations and rationale for government intervention including Medicare, and price regulation. International comparison and general consideration to guide health policy.

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

MBA 8150

MBA 8150 and MBA 8350 and MBA 8450 and MBA 8650