MBA 8557: IT & Proc Des E-Business

Critical role of information technology in development of E-Business processes including web technologies and their functions. Organizational and technical issues related to analyzing, designing, and creating E-Business processes. Transformation of traditional business processes into E-Business processes.

Credits: 3.0