EMB 1009: Tech Enablers of e-Business

Overview of the technologies that make e-Business possible. Emphasis on managing the technology environment rather than the technical underpinnings. Topics: applications (Internet architecture, platforms, interfaces, web design), database management, networking and communication, hardware, security, and standards.

Credits: 3.0