

CHR 7816: Homeless and College Bound

The McKinney-Vento Act requires schools to assist students experiencing homelessness. Workshop provides an overview of best practices to consider when these students are preparing for higher education. This includes selecting an institution, and the development of targeted resources.

Credits: 1