

HDI 7010: Systems&Design Thinking

HDI 7010 Systems & Design Thinking for Healthcare Innovation This is systems thinking and design in action. Participants will examine value driven leadership that is customer focused with healthcare industry knowledge. This team-based course explores how to assemble interprofessional teams that can envision the future, navigate complexity and uncertainty during rapid change, assess risk preparedness and tolerance while innovating and improving access to care and care received.

Credits: 1.6