MPA 8002: Organization Theory

The study of the similarities and differences in various formal and complex organizations, the structures and dynamics of these organizataions, and the theories applicable to such organizations.

Credits: 3.0
Program: Public Administration