

CHR 8910: College Admissions Process

Overview of the entire college admissions process, including post-secondary admissions terminology/criteria, timelines, and institutional types, as well as research and counseling techniques to aid diverse secondary school students through the process.

Credits: 3