

MPA 8003: Financial Management

The study of financial management of government and non-profit organizations that will provide skills for evaluating alternative courses of action in financial decision making. Topics include the budgetary process, revenue policy, financial controls, debt management, and capital budgeting.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Public Administration