

GEV 3570: Land Use Planning & Mgmt

Land use planning and management with focus on land-law interfaces between the physical, cultural, and legal realms. Survey of natural and political systems as the basis for land use controls at the federal and regional levels. The environmental, economic, and ethical impacts of land management.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Geography and the Environment