

GEV 4517: Sustainable Development

Environmental, economic, and justice issues facing developing countries. Historical review of post-colonial experiences and the impact of modern global economic and environmental changes on the political, economic, and demographic experiences of Latin America, Africa, and southern Asia.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Geography and the Environment