

GIS 4284: Glob. Racial Images Film & Lit

An examination of the globalization of racial images through a comparative study of film and literature, using historical inquiry and literacy criticism. Topics include institutional and intellectual racism, imperialism and segregation, racial violence, miscegenation and sexuality, and resistance to stereotypes.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Global Interdisciplinary Studies