

GIS 4290: African & Caribbean Pol & Lit

Interdisciplinary exploration of diverse literary traditions of Africa and its large diaspora in the Caribbean through political science and development economics theories. Examines political dysfunctions that follow postcolonialism; offers theoretical and aesthetic tools to appreciate interface between politics and culture.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Global Interdisciplinary Studies