Art Gallery

In its role as an extension of the classroom, Villanova's world-class Art Gallery serves to make the visual arts an engaging part of campus life for students, their families, staff and the community. Free oncampus exhibits by leading American and international artists, and emerging ones of promise, are publicly presented throughout the academic year.