ACC 2360: Federal Income Tax

An introduction to federal income taxation with primary emphasis on the tax implications of business transactions. Objectives of the course are to explore tax-policy issues and to develop a basic understanding of federal income tax laws, income tax planning, and the impact of taxes on business decisions. Restricted to Accounting majors and minors with Junior and Senior standing.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:
ACC 2310 (or concurrently) and VSB 2004 and (VSB 2009 or VSB 2010 or VSB 2030 and VSB 2040)

Program: Accounting