ECE 3476: Computer and Network Security

Computer security in the context of the Internet, including hands-on exercises and experiments in the areas of authentication, attacks and threats, email and communication digital signatures and encryption, mobile devices, privacy, safe browsing and certificates.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:
ECE 4470 (or concurrently) or CSC 2405

Program: Electrical and Computer Engineering